King Carol of Rumania put the finishing touches today on a course of action in Europe's war that may prove of paramount importance in the final choice of a battlefield that the allies and Nazi Germany have been seeking since hostilities broke out in September of last year.

His considered decision will be made known on Friday, if not publicly, at least to his conferees in southeastern Europe, when the Balkan entente nations meet in Belgrade at his behest.

That meeting will be worthy of close study even though its deliberations are in camera and its conclusions cloaked in diplomatic secrecy.

May Break Log Jam

For Carol may break up Europe's military log jam by announcing that being a neutral in this war is in some respects worse than being a belligerent. And while by no stretch of the imagination can he be expected to join the fray on one

Friday will be groundhog day.

Heaved pavement signs are becoming more numerous on the highways of the district. Some of the heaves are quite noticeable.

While most of the snow and ice has been worn off the main streets and highways, there still remains plenty of ice to making driving and walking treacherous in the alleys and side streets.

There was activity at the New Castle Airport, Sunday, for the first time in several weeks. Flying activities have been somewhat curtailed due to the rather windy weather.

Just two more days remain after today to have your automobile inspected. And incidentally the same number of days will see the expiration of the 1939 operators' licenses.

Today is the birthday anniversary of William McKinley, twenty-fifth president of the United States. One of the martyred presidents. He was shot September 5, 1901, by Leon Czolgosz, Anarchist, at Buffalo, N. Y., and died September 14, that year.

Next month will bring a birthday anniversary for numerous persons in this city and district, for the first time in four years. This is leap year and persons born on February 29 will again officially celebrate the four-year anniversary. 'Birthday Ball'
Tuesday NightCity Joins Nation In Paralysis Fight—Cathedral
The PlaceDANCING IN VOGUE
FROM 9 UNTIL 1

New Castle's President's "birthday ball", one of thousands throughout America, will draw hundreds of citizens to the Cathedral ballroom Tuesday night.

"Everything is in readiness—and we look for a big crowd," General Chairman John S. Huffner, busy with the dance preparations for weeks, said this morning.

Dancing will be in vogue from nine until one, he said. One of the district's well-known orchestras has been engaged for the evening.

City Shares Proceeds

Funds raised tomorrow night will be divided and half of the proceeds sent to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and half deposited in a local fund to further the paralysis fight here.

Huffner and his capable dance lieutenants reported that 1,500 tickets have been distributed throughout the city, and that, from reports, the sale has been quite heavy.

Saturday found school girls on downtown streets, selling "March of Dimes" buttons.
Residents have also joined in the "March of Dimes" mail parade and addressed their contribution direct to President Roosevelt at the White House.

Center of attraction Tuesday evening will be an attractive four-layer cake which will be sold during one of the intermissions. That money will also be added to the paralysis fund.

The balls throughout the nation salute the President's 58th birthday.

Shoots Two Daughters
And Self; Spares Wife

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

MIDDLEFIELD, Conn., Jan. 29.—

Despondent over financial difficulties, a salesman for a Waterbury firm today killed his two small daughters and himself and destroyed his home by fire after carefully insuring the safety of his wife.

The victims were Alden G. Schlosser, 35, a ginger ale salesman, and his daughters, Alice, 5, and Jeanette, 3.

Armed with a small bore rifle, Schlosser early this morning trussed up his wife with a clothes-line, taped her mouth to prevent her screaming, then carried her outside the couple's home at nearby Lake

Besek, his last words to her were: "When you hear the first shot, it will be the oldest child."

Schlosser re-entered the house and severed the telephone wires. Outside, shivering in the cold, his wife saw Schlosser going from room to room, setting the small cottage afire. Then she heard three shots in rapid succession. The first two snuffing out the lives of her children, the last marking the suicide of her husband.

Aroused by the flames shooting skyward, neighbors ran to the Schlosser home where they found Mrs. Schlosser struggling helplessly in her bonds. Charred bodies of the three victims were recovered by firemen.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A sharp attack on proposed legislation for a loan to Finland and plans for a congressional survey of American foreign policy in the Orient touched off a bitter row in the senate today.

Senator Clark (D) Missouri, led the attack against the legislation for a Finnish loan. Abandoning foreign policy as grounds for his opposition, Clark said it would be "unfair to the American people" for such a loan to be made.

"Here we are trying to save money in this country," he said, "and we are faced with the proposition of taking American taxpayers' money to loan to Finland. It isn't fair to the people at all, and I intend to fight it to the best of my ability."

HELSINKI, Jan. 29.—Finnish anti-aircraft batteries drove off Russian bombing planes apparently headed for a new bombing raid on Helsinki today as air raid sirens drove residents into shelters on two occasions.

These attempted raids came while Finnish troops were locked in a life-and-death struggle with Russia's north of Lake Ladoga, where despite terrible losses the red army again was taking the offensive.

The first raid came at 9:45 a. m. (3:45 a. m. EST) and found the streets of Finnish capital crowded. Many abandoned their autos when the sirens screamed their warning and joined the rush to the shelters.

No Russian planes were seen and no bombs heard in either of the alarms. The first lasted about an hour and the second—less than an hour later—lasted 15 minutes.

Military authorities announced that heavy and accurate Finnish anti-aircraft fire drove the Russian planes away before they could reach Helsinki.

"Roosevelt won't be a candidate before the convention," Johnson said. "But some bird will get up and make a cross of gold and crown of thorns speech and he'll get nominated by acclamation."

At the same time Johnson approved John L. Lewis' recent attack upon Roosevelt because the CIO and UMW chief "has been getting a hell of a run around at the White House."

Germans Renew
Aerial Activity
Over EnglandAir Raid Warnings Sounded
In Four Northwestern
England Towns

(International News Service)
LONDON, Jan. 29.—An apparent German attempt to stage an air raid over northeastern England brought air raid warnings to four towns in that area today followed by several violent explosions shortly after 9 a. m.

Several hours later the London air ministry issued a brief communique explaining the first renewal of aerial activity over England in several days.

A number of royal air force fighters were sent up and anti-aircraft batteries opened fire in the Tyne district, the announcement said. "No enemy aircraft crossed the coast."

It was reported, however, that faint sounds of airplane engines were heard off the Yorkshire coast. Air raid precaution organizations stood by for action throughout the entire northeastern area, and residents of the district calmly took to air raid shelters.

A further report said observers sighted a number of bombers, presumed to be German craft, over the east coast.

Shortly after 11 a. m. all clear signals were sounded throughout the affected areas.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Great Britain and France paid American manufacturers more than $100,000,000 in "down" and "progress" payments on war materials—chiefly airplanes—in October and early November, treasury and commerce department sources disclosed today.

Orders for war planes represented about 75 per cent of the total involved in the payments, with machine tools and metals comprising most of the remainder, commerce officials said.

The treasury's monthly bulletin for October, released today, revealed that the Allies obtained American dollars to make the payments—the "cash" half of the neutrality act's "cash and carry" twins—mainly by selling American securities they own and drawing on their bank balances in this country.

During October, the British disposed of $47,971,000 worth of American securities, nearly double their sales of September—the first month of the war—and took $39,983,000 "out of the bank," for a total of $87,954,000.

France, during the same month, sold only $461,000 worth of securities, but reduced its bank deposits $38,417,000. In all, the two nations got together $120,981,000 in U. S. dollars during the month.

HELSINKI, Jan. 29.—Despite losses estimated at 5,000 killed and 15,000 wounded on the battlefield north of Lake Ladoga, Soviet Russian troops were reported renewing their offensive today along all roads leading into Finland's interior from the frontier.

Reports of the new assaults on the eastern frontier coincided with air raid warnings in Helsinki, indicating the Russians were resuming the aerial offensive which has been held to a minimum recently by unfavorable weather.

These advances also quashed previous reports that the Russians north of Lake Ladoga were completely surrounded and staging a disorderly retreat.

Renewal Of Attacks Ordered

Finnish military dispatches indicated that the new commander-in-chief of the Russian forces arrayed against Finland, Marshal Semon Mikhailovitch Budenny, ordered renewed attacks on every front and the moving up of Soviet reinforcements and supplies as frequently as possible.

In addition, there were reports that the Russians were attempting, "not without success," to send reinforcements to Russian units which have dug in on the Salla front, far to the north.

Prior to today's disclosures of the new Soviet attacks, which may develop into a general offensive on all ground fronts as well as in the air, Finnish quarters had indicated that the Red army drive north of Lake Ladoga had been halted after eight days of fighting and that the Russian attempt to outflank the left wing of the Mannerheim line had been smashed.

It was known, however, that the

It also works vice versa. If a committee's liberal, all liberals proclaim it to be a model; all conservatives speak of its activities as perfectly courageous.

A Sincere Committee

Now then a committee is honestly constructive in its aims. One such is Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney's so-called monopoly committee. The Wyoming senator takes the position that our legislation of years ago no longer fits our present business conditions and is trying to discover, from all sorts of good authorities, what changes are desirable. He isn't attempting to make out any particular case. He simply wants enlightenment, no matter from WHAT source. He treats HIS witnesses as advisers.

The average congressional investigation, though, is launched by some statesman who knows in advance exactly what conclusions he prefers to have arrived at. A witness who agrees with him is handled like a long lost brother. A witness who disagrees assuredly needs protection—if he can get it.

My own observation is that the system, despite its faults is better than it would be with TOO many "rules of evidence."

Most likely a court of law has to have them, but technicalities perhaps, are a trifle overdone even in law courts. It often is complained that legal objections, exceptions appeals and miscellaneous palaver obstruct justice.

A congressional committee that is TOO unfair makes itself ridiculous. It is moderately reasonable if it is somewhere.

Still, they generally are tough on the witnesses.

But there was nothing to do but sit. I had her throttled back a few hundred RPM and I kept an eye on that oil temperature and pressure.

"As soon as I knew I was out of the mountains and near Richmond, I let down through the overcast and cruised along at three thousand feet. There was Richmond airport, ten miles ahead. I said the cover back and glanced out along the right side of the ship. She was plastered with oil from nose to tail.

"We'd better land at Richmond and check the oil," I told the Sergeant. "We might run out and freeze before we reach Langley."

"Langley's only twenty minutes more, why this tail wind," he answered. "I think we can make it all right. We'd be stuck over-night at Richmond. No tool-kit in the ship."

"I knew the Sergeant was a top-notch mechanic—a better mechanic than I certainly. Maybe he was right. It was his neck as well as mine. I passed up Richmond against my better judgment.

"Four miles beyond the field, the smoke bled up into an ugly black column that couldn't be ignored any longer. I whipped into a steep bank toward the field, cut the engine back to idling and shot in for a landing as fast as I could get down.

"We found plenty of oil left in the tank. Plenty all over the engine, too. So much that it was impossible to locate the oil leak without a couple of hours' work cleaning the engine. The sergeant was impatient to get home to supper I guess. "We've got enough oil to get to Langley," he said. "She'll smoke, but we'll get in all right. I'm for going on."

"I considered a minute. He was a mechanic. I was a pilot. This was a mechanical difficulty, and the ought to know. And then I stuck my neck out a mile. I said, "Okay, Sergeant."

"We climbed back in, rolled to the runway and gave her the gun. We gained flying speed and were just barely off the ground when all hell broke loose. A deluge of oil splashed over the windshield, and I saw an orange flame licking under the engine cowl. For—sake, land!" yelled the Sergeant over the interphone.

"I cut the throttle half way back, changed to high pitch on the propeller, retracted my wheel and prepared for an immediate belly landing in the trees at the end of the runway. But the flames went out and the smoke decreased as soon as the engine speed dropped. Hugging onto a precarious eighty miles airspeed, I went into a steep turn practically right on the ground and executed the quickest circle of a field you ever saw—ready at any moment to set her down into the wind. I got the wheels back down again when I saw I could make it okay, and hanging my head out of the side of the oil-backeded windshield, I glided on in and rolled to a stop with my feet chattering on the rudder pedals.

"We spent the night at Richmond all right, and we found a four inch crack in an exhaust pushrod housing, where the oil is under pressure for automatic valve lubrication. But that's not the point of the story.

"This is the point and I'm not likely to forget it. A pilot has got to make his own decisions. It's his neck. And it's his funeral—if he's willing to let someone else arrange it for him."

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

(Copyright, 1940, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THE INFECTIOUS DISEASE SEASON

In the next few months all over this continent there will be outbreaks of various infectious diseases among children. There will be mumps and measles and whooping cough and scarlet fever. There may even be some cases of smallpox, although this disease is becoming rarer each year. The principal reason we will have these outbreaks is that the winter months are beginning to take their heavy toll of children's vitality. There is less sunshine and the sunshine vitamins, there are fewer fresh green vegetables in diets. And in the cases of many children a series of colds, or a prolonged one, has sapped vitality until it is at a point where it is an easy prey to infection.

Consequently now is the time for parents to give their children extra protection against infectious diseases.

Fortunately, the modern child doesn't run the same high risk of disease that we of the prior generation did in our childhood. For example, smallpox used to be regarded as incidental to the life of each person as death and taxes. It used to be that almost every year brought an epidemic of the disease that killed many and left more with scars to be borne the rest of their lives.

Vaccination saved the new generation from all that. Vaccination was always one thing I insisted upon in my country district. I think the results justify all that I did to make it accepted, too, for it has been a good many years since there has been a single case of smallpox in this part of the country.

There must be no letup, however. And it is only a short time since the local Red Cross nurse and I finished a tour of the schools on which we vaccinated every child.

Inducing the people in my frontier section of Ontario, up in the North woods, to be vaccinated, was not easy a few years ago. They were mostly hardy pioneers of French-Canadian stock, used to accepting hardships and disease as a natural part of human existence. They looked upon smallpox as something to be expected and suffered, when I began going around the country, visiting their homes, to tell them the periodic outbreaks of the disease weren't necessary. And it was difficult for some of them to understand how by scratching an arm and rubbing in a fluid, a doctor could prevent smallpox. The underlying fact of vaccination, that one attack of an infectious disease will protect the body against subsequent exposure, was not always easy for them to understand. Fortunately, many of them knew me and were willing to take my word for it. But some were not so tractable. They refused to accept any such ideas. In these cases I called in the parish priest to help me persuade them.

Many a time I've demonstrated on my own arm, how harmless vaccination is. I discovered how effective this demonstration could be when I had to deal with an old Frenchman with a large family, about half of which had had smallpox. I knew that soon another epidemic would come along and get the younger children. So one day when I was at the home seeing a sick child, I proposed vaccination. I could see that the parents didn't like the idea. The old man thought about it awhile and then said, challengingly, "You wouldn't do it to a child of your own."

There is plenty of precedent in medical lore for what I did then. Catherine II of Russia calmed the wild fears of the peasants about vaccination by having herself publicly inoculated. Benjamin Waterhouse, the first American vaccinator, convinced doubters by inoculating seven of his children and then marching them to the pest-house to be exposed to smallpox.

My reply to the old Frenchman was to roll up my sleeve right there and then, scratching my arm and rubbing in vaccine. The father's face lit up and you could see his distrust going, as he thought a little more about it. Then he called a half dozen of his children to me. He was convinced. I vaccinated the family. There hasn't been a case of smallpox in it since.

Many Still Seek Library Books Without Cards

Librarian Says That Practice
Must Be Halted Here
At Once

A short time ago a move was made at the public library to put a halt to persons coming to the institution for books without their borrowers card. Since this was started the habit has been somewhat slackened, but still some persons persist in asking for books without being able to produce a card.

Miss Alice Sterling, librarian, stated today that the practice here must be halted at once. She further stated that with everyone asking the staff members to look up his or her card number, there was not much time left to do anything else.

Although it is not necessary to have a card to visit the library, it will be necessary in the future to show your borrowers card when taking books from the library. Since the cards are no longer used to stamp due dates on, Miss Sterling states that they may be trimmed to fit a billfold or pocketbook or some handy container.

Here's Bill at work in the quiet of his office. Bill...typewriter...books...pictures... and Camels—slow-burning Camels. "I find them milder and cooler—and thriftier," he says. And, being a Camel fan of many years' standing, he ought to know.

BILL CORUM'S sports news isn't just printed...it's sprinted...at lightning speed from press-box to press and the Five-Star Final. But when the candid camera catches Bill in his office with a cigarette—well, "No speed for me in my smoking," he says. His own common sense and smoking experience tell him what scientists have confirmed in their research laboratories—that "slow-burning cigarettes are extra mild, extra cool, fragrant, and flavorful."

Cigarettes that burn fast just naturally burn hot. And nothing so surely wrecks the delicate elements of flavor and fragrance in a cigarette as excess heat. You don't want a hot, flat, uncomfortable smoke. The delightful mildness, coolness, fragrance, and flavor of Camels are explained by this important finding—Camels proved to be the slowest-burning cigarette of the sixteen largest-selling brands tested! ## Believe Wife Should File Divorce Suit fourth of the men students agree with two-thirds of the women in a sociology course at the Pennsylvania State College that the wife should be allowed to file suit for divorce no matter which is the aggrieved party.

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Jan. 29.—

A majority of the class felt, however, that in their own cases their first marriage would prove successful.

A poll of the class conducted by the instructor, Peter P. Klassen, showed also that sentiment against easy divorces was more pronounced among the coeds than among the men. Only one-third of the women felt that mutual consent should be sufficient grounds, while three-fourths of the men said it should.

Men rated the causes that would prompt them to seek divorce in the following order: Adultery, desertion, wife drinking, insanity, mental cruelty, neglect to share family expenses and duties.

The order listed by the women students was: Desertion, physical and mental cruelty, neglect to provide, adultery, and insanity.

Wrathy At Mayor

New Democratic Mayor Votes

To Retain Present Department Heads

SHARON, Pa., Jan. 29.—Democratic party leaders of Sharon today considered plans to discipline Mayor Thomas J. Dougherty because he voted with two Republican councilmen, E. O. Bignin and Ralph Robinson, to reappoint Police Chief Charles B. Steger, City Clerk Fred S. Williams, Assessor William B. Nightwine and City Physician C. Howard Moses.

The four reappointments, for four-year terms, were made at a special meeting of council Saturday. Democratic councilmen, Thomas Bailey and Eugene Buitrago, who were elected with Dougherty last November, voted "no" on all the appointments.

Buitrago scored the mayor for failure to keep campaign promises and charged him with betraying his political associates. Democratic leaders today said they would ask Dougherty to resign all his committee positions in the city and county party organizations.

May Oust Head

Of Slippery Rock

BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 29.—John A. Adams, president of the board of trustees of Slippery Rock State Teachers' college, states a special meeting of trustees would be called to discuss a ruling suggesting the removal of Dr. Charles S. Miller, college president.

Dr. Miller was twice convicted of misfeasance and nonfeasance and resigned last January 17, effective not later than May 31. The trustees accepted the resignation.

But Adams disclosed he had received a letter from Dr. Francis P. Haas, state superintendent of public instruction, asserting that the state constitution makes mandatory the removal of a public official convicted of misbehavior in office.

Dr. Miller was refused a third trial and arrest of judgment and was sentenced to pay the costs of his prosecution. He denied the charges of mishandling the funds and property of the college.

House Farm Bloc Leaders To Demand New Tax Levies

Will Ask Congress For New Taxes To Meet $725,000, 000 To Finance Program

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A group of house farm bloc leaders today temporarily abandoned a drive for a $225,000,000 unbudgeted appropriation for farm parity payments, and instead, demanded that congress levy $725,000,000 in new taxes to finance the entire farm benefit program.

Leaders in the movement, including members of the house appropriations subcommittee which will report the annual agricultural supply bill to the house tomorrow, plan to urge consideration of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace's certificate plan of financing farm aid.

Responding to the general economic demands, the subcommittee will submit a bill for the department of agriculture which was said to reduce budget recommendations by $80,000,000.

In submitting his budget estimates, Mr. Roosevelt did not include another appropriation of $225,000,000—to be added to the regular $500,000,000 soil conservation program—to bring farm prices close to parity. Parity is based upon giving the farmers equal purchasing power with the pre-World War period.

While farm bloc leaders said that they will not demand that the house vote parity payments this week, they made it plain that they would seek the necessary money before the session ends.

Winter Increase In State's Relief Rolls Seen In Report Of Past Week

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—The usual winter increase in the state's relief load appeared today to have set in as the Department of Public Assistance reported the addition of 1,432 persons to the relief rolls.

Relief expenditures for the week ending January 20 represented a drop of $4,651 over the previous week, however, as the total general assistance rolls stood at 595,068 persons.

Last week's report saw the first increase (18 persons) in the relief rolls after a steady decline for months during which more than 200,000 persons left relief for W. P. A. or private jobs.

Although the number of persons on relief increased, the week saw a decrease of 965 in the number of families obtaining assistance, the case load dropping below the 200,000 mark for the first time since the summer of 1938.

W. P. A. turnover in employment was a favorable factor for the 16th consecutive week, the Public Assistance Department reported, although the transfer of general assistance recipients to old age assistance for which the federal government contributes.

(International News Service)
SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 29 — Joe Glenn, stocky St. Louis Browns were all wrong if they think he was out to grab some "easy money" for himself when he applied recently in New York state for $15 weekly un-

Glenn, who resides at nearby having made application for benefits but that he did so to help St.

Mary's Polish Catholic parish.
Monsignor Stanley Szpanski, pastor, said "Joe promised to give the parish every dollar of it," and added "I don't think Joe should be criticized for attempting to do a good turn."
Glenn, who said he hadn't received any money so far, asserted that he wasn't "even familiar with the fact" that he had any money due him, but that he had made application for benefits through the Pennsylvania bureau after a friend brought the matter to his atten-

Good Roads Enthusiasts Seek Greater U. S. Funds

Would Expand Road Building

Seek Boost From $357,000, 000 To $486,000,000 In Federal Funds For Two Years

BETTER HIGHWAYS ARE GREAT NEED

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Despite the economy drive, good roads enthusiasts both in and out of congress today were engaged in a campaign for federal appropriations for expansion of highway construction during 1942 and 1943.

The goal is a boost from $357,000,000 to $486,000,000 in federal authorizations for the two year period even though stern opposition is expected to be encountered at the white house.

Seek Expanded Program
Representatives of state highway commissions throughout the country are bombarding the house roads committee with pleas for an expanded program to meet the growing use of automobiles and trucks, the house committee is expected to approve the expansion.

"I think the sentiment of our committee is to report out a bill authorizing $486,000,000," said Chairman Cartwright (D) Oklahoma.

"Members have been impressed by testimony of expert witnesses on the need of expansion of highways to meet modern day needs. Furthermore, members are convinced that a good highway system is one of the greatest and most potent parts of a national defense program. We don't want to build highways purely for military purposes, as Germany did, but we can build them so that they will serve that purpose.

"We are in a progressive age. The progress made in the automobile has far outstripped our progress in highway building."

Modified Super-Highway Plan
The house committee also is expected to propose a modified super-highway plan, designed especially to relieve congestion around big cities.

Cartwright said that proposals that the federal government buy up rights-of-way so as to control use of, and sell land along, the highways, is gaining favor.

"The committee is much interested in so-called super highways from a regional standpoint," he said. "This is largely a matter of taking care of congested traffic in and out of cities."

When congress made a highway authorization two years ago the house committee approved $486,000,000. As a result of white house objections, the senate cut the amount to $357,000,000.

The proposed expanded program would include $250,000,000 federal aid to states for primary highways; $100,000,000 for grade crossing eliminations; $50,000,000 for farm-to-market roads, and funds for Indian and public land roads.

CENSUS APPOINTMENTS

New Castle, Pa.
January 27, 1940.

Mr. Fred L. Rentz, New Castle, Penna.
Dear Mr. Rentz:

I have an interesting experience to relate to some one very interested in politics who happens to be a Republican. I am a stranger to you and I know nothing about politics.

I happened to apply for a position on the Census Bureau because the application stated politics, religion and fraternal organizations had nothing to do with filling the positions in this Census.

However, it happened that the result was exactly the opposite, that the Supervisor in charge said not one—not even one—Republican had a chance of being employed in this district here.

Out of 120,000 positions to be filled in the country a few "on the wrong side of the fence" ought to stand a chance.

If you are not interested could you please give me the names of any Republicans who would like to hear some almost unbelievable facts.

Yours very truly,
(Miss) Agnes A. Main,
316½ Neshannock Ave.
New Castle, Penna.

German Campaign Against Catholic Church Is Charged

Claim Program Of "Real Extermination" Being Conducted By Germans In Poland

(International News Service)

ROME, Jan. 29.—A report charging a German campaign against the Catholic church and the Polish people in sections of German-occupied Poland, where 15 priests and thousands of other persons are said to have been shot, has been presented to Pope Pius XII with authorization of Auguste Cardinal Hlond, of Poland, it was revealed today.

Submitted to the Pontiff last week and detailing events up to Dec. 30, the report asserted that the German authorities in the arch-dioceses of Gneizno and Poznan are conducting a program of "real extermination, conceived with diabolical malice and unequalled cruelty."

In addition to breaking up families and jailing scores of thousands of persons, the memorandum claimed, the Germans have closed churches in various districts and have sent Poles to concentration camps in the Reich.

Carbon Monoxide Fumes Kill Two

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 29.—A man and a woman, victims of carbon monoxide fumes, were found dead Sunday on a bed in a downtown apartment. Lieutenant of Police Roy B. Monz identified the two as Mrs. Mary Duda, 45, and Barney Zybowski, 49, and said he had learned the couple had spent Saturday night in a nearby cafe.

Detective Paul Schaaf said the bodies, fully clothed, were found by Mrs. Alexandria Gruszka, owner of the building, in Zybowski's apartment after she smelled gas, then pushed open the unlocked door. Dr. W. G. Strohle, coroner, said a gas stove in the room—still burning when the bodies were found—had consumed the oxygen in the air, filling the room with carbon monoxide fumes.

State Motor Police will hold tests for prospective drivers of motor cars between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. Tuesday, in Sampson street.

Don't Look Back! Look Forward!

Such Is Philosophy Of Ninety Year Old Woman At New Bethlehem

(International News Service)

NEW BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 29.—"I don't believe in looking back—I believe in looking ahead."

That's the way Mrs. Blanche P. Wick summed up things recently when she celebrated her 90th birthday.

"Widow of the late Dr. J. Addison Wick, pioneer 'horse and buggy' doctor," the aged woman answered questions concerning her attitude toward life by quoting Browning's lines:

"Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be."

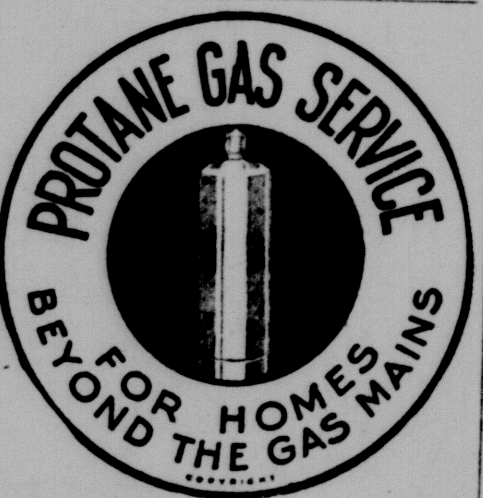

Mrs. Wick spent her younger days in Pittsburgh, as a concert pianist, teacher, newspaper writer and railroad telegrapher. She was at the telegraph key when news came over the wire of Lincoln's assassination.

She was born in Rimersburg, and named for the Pittsburgh-New Orleans steamboat, the Blanche Pauline, of which her father, William Abrams, was captain.

To show how she has kept up with modern things, Mrs. Wick is mighty anxious to see a television set and how it operates.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—The declaration of John L. Lewis, C. I. O. chairman, against President Roosevelt for a third term, appears to put Pennsylvania's junior senator, who is seeking re-election, "in the middle" . . . Senator Joseph P. Guffey has repeatedly called for a third term for the President and, in the opinion of political posters, his best chance for re-election lies in Roosevelt's candidacy. . . . The consensus of many is that Roosevelt could carry the state again in 1940 and in that manner aid Guffey's candidacy.

Guffey realizes, however, that C. I. O. support in Pennsylvania is important to his election. . . . Last year, the Pittsburgh Democrat was allied with the C. I. O. in an unsuccessful effort to obtain the Democratic gubernatorial nomination for Thomas Kennedy, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers Union, chief C. I. O. affiliate. . . . After the primary he made up with the Democratic organization, but the reconciliation did not sit well with all members of the party. . . . Despite widespread opposition to his candidacy which appears to exist within the organization, present appearances are that he will receive the endorsement of the Democratic state committee when it meets at the capital on February 3. . . . Guffey may get the endorsement by default.

Six Republican presidential possibilities are watching the meeting on February 2 at Pittsburgh of the young Republicans of Allegheny County. . . . Pictures of the principal G. O. P. candidates will be displayed and a vote taken to decide whom the young Republicans of Allegheny County will endorse for president.

Governor James was asked to attend, but sent his regrets. . . . He forwarded his picture, however, and it will grace the scene along with the pictures sent by five other leading presidential candidates—District Attorney Dewey of New York, Senator Bridges of New Hampshire, Senator Taft of Ohio, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, and Governor Bricker of Ohio. . . . Vandenberg in his letter asked to be informed of the result. . . . A close vote between James and Dewey was expected.

Headquarters for the anthracite emergency committee, which will supervise the new plan drawn up for the regulation of Pennsylvania's hard coal industry, may be set up in Harrisburg, rather than in the anthracite region. . . . Governor James said that he personally thought the capital was preferable, but added it was up to the committee to decide.

The Republican candidate for auditor-general in the fall will apparently be State Sen. Frederick T. Gilder of Susquehanna. . . . His announcement of his candidacy apparently gives him a clear field with organization support behind him.

On Court House Hill

Nancy Langham estate to Leo B. O'Laughlin, sixth ward, $1,400. Harold L. Kildoo to A. Scott Kildoo, Ellwood City, $1.

George T. Weingartner to Sebastian Colello, fourth ward, $1. William J. Gebhart to William J. Gebhart, Jr., North Beaver township, $1.

The budget for the coming year has been completed by County Controller Frank W. Hill and today was turned over to the county commissioners. From the figures in the budget it seems certain that a tax reduction of not less than one and a half mills will be effected.

At the present time the tax levy is six mills, four for general purposes and two for institutional purposes. If the cut is one and one-half mills, the one mill will come off the general and half a mill off the institutional tax. There is a possibility that the cut may even go to two mills.

The budget is to be on public display for 20 days, under state law, after which it will be adopted and the tax levy formally set. For 20 days it will be in the commissioners' office for any taxpayer to view it.

The treasurer's sale which is scheduled for February 1 is uncovering a host of discrepancies in the 1929-30 school and road taxes. County Treasurer Earl R. Wimer stated today.

Many of the taxes were paid, taxpayers have receipts, but the books show them to be unpaid. In other cases taxpayers have statements which they asked for some years ago, in which they cleaned up their taxes, but the 1929-30 school and road tax was omitted.

It's considerable of a mess, and if the treasurer's sale does nothing else, it will probably straighten out tangles for a lot of taxpayers.

February 3 will be the last day to pay delinquent taxes to the collector, Mrs. Marion McKenzie. After that they go back to the county treasurer and interest is added. Persons who have been notified of delinquencies can save themselves money by paying before February 3.

Waiving a hearing before a justice of the peace, Edward Novotny of Donora, Pa., was heard Saturday morning by Judge W. Walter Braham on a charge of speeding brought by Pennsylvania motor police. Ordinarily the case is heard first by a justice and then appealed if the defendant thinks he should be acquitted. In this case Novotny and his attorney, E. G. Francis, of Sharon, brought the matter directly to the court. Judge Braham found Novotny guilty and fined him $10 and costs. His driver's license will be suspended for 90 days, it is anticipated.

In an opinion handed down on Saturday by Judge Thomas W. Dickey, a new trial is granted in the case of Frank J. Wells versus the County of Lawrence. In a recent trial the plaintiff was awarded $1,241.43 for damage to his property in Big Beaver township when a route was relocated.

In the case of Viola Benedict and Louis Benedict versus Tony Vitale, trading and doing business as the Ohio Display Fireworks company, Judge Dickey upheld a verdict of $1,000 or Mrs. Benedict and $2,000 for Mr. Benedict. This case arose out of an accident in Ambridge, Pa., July 4, 1938. A fireworks display was being put off by agents of the defendant when in some fashion sparks ignited some bombs and a panic ensued. In the rush of people to get away from the exploding bombs Mrs. Benedict was injured and sued the company.

In the appeal from the return of the official election return board Judge Dickey ruled that E. J. Walter of the seventh ward is the regularly elected county assessor for that ward. Mr. Walter has served 12 years in such a capacity and in the primary of September 12, 1939, ran for the Democratic nomination. He was opposed by Peter F. Cardella, who defeated Walter for the nomination.

In the general election Mr. Walter conducted a sticker campaign against Mr. Cardella and Nick Cardella, the Republican candidate. Cardella was declared the winner, but Mr. Walter appealed on the ground that 23 people had voted for him whose votes were not counted. Some were cast for Joe Walter, some for Ernie Walter, some for Mr. Walter. These the court declared were intended for E. J. Walter, and he was allowed them.

Many Clubs Are After McCoy For Season Of 1940

Spirited Bidding For Services Of Player Declared Free-Agent By Landis

M'COY IS NOW SITTING PRETTY

By ED KIELY
International News Service Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29.—In baseball's private circles, newspapers and newspaper reporters are being blamed today for throwing the wrench in the McCoy deal.

Benny McCoy, you remember, is the 23-year-old second baseman for the Detroit Tigers, who was declared a free agent recently in a sweeping ruling handed down by High Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis against the American league club.

The word, now being bandied privately, is that young Benny was all set to sign with an unnamed club for a reasonable amount of money. The unnamed club, of course, was dickering with the Michigan ball-hawk in such a manner, they thought, that no one, least of all the press, would get wind of it.

Prohibitive Bidding

Somehow, the story did break and when the other clubs, bidding for McCoy's services, saw the approximate amount offered immediately boosted the ante to prohibitive prices.

McCoy, being smart, meantime is just sitting back waiting and letting the offers mount.

Baseball men also blame the press for forestalling the Joe Medwick trade for at least another year.

The dope is that hard-hitting Joe was placed on the block for a certain sum. The deal was being worked quietly between the St. Louis Cardinals and another club, but again the press got wind of the business and told the world.

The result was that other clubs immediately contacted the St. Louis owners with higher offers; offers went so high that the Cardinals are reported saying, "Well, if the other teams in the league think Medwick is that good, maybe we better keep him ourselves."

Soose-Mignault To Fight Tonight

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—Al Nettlow, Detroit's hair-dressing pugilist, today returned a six-to-five favorite to put the skids under Bob Montgomery, Philadelphia's Negro lightweight, in a scheduled ten-rounder at the Arena tonight.

Anneling for a shot at Welterweight Champion Henry Armstrong, Nettlow was expected to wage a wily "pocket battleship" campaign against the Negro. The hard-hitting Montgomery once held the Pennsylvania lightweight title, but lost it on a questionable decision to Tommy Spiegall of Uniontown.

In another bout, Billy Soose, former Penn State star, sought his 20th straight pro triumph in a battle with Bud Mignault, Brockton, Mass.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

A report from Harrisburg today stated there is sentiment for increasing the state's fishing license fee from $1.50 to $2.00 to broaden enjoyment of the sport. A. P. Swiggart, spokesman for the Fish commission claims "there's quite a lot of pushing" for the increase. Proponents of the increase would earmark the extra 50 cents for acquisition and improvement of public fishing waters, a provision contained in a resolution passed by the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's clubs.

Dr. Jock Sutherland, former football mentor at Pitt, may coach the Brooklyn Dodgers. Dan Topping, owner of the Dodgers, and the Silent Scot will confer in Pittsburgh today. Ed Oliver of Hornell, N. Y., won the $3,000 Bing Crosby golf tournament at Del Mar, Calif., with a 68-67-135. Leo Freisinger, Chicago, and Madeline Horn, Beaver Dam, Wis., won the senior men's and women's title, respectively, in the national outdoor ice skating speed championship in Chicago yesterday. #### GENNOCK-COWDEN LEADING SCORERS

New Castle High School basketball team defeated Youngstown South High quintet here Saturday night at the Washington High gym before a small crowd 50 to 15. #### WAR CASUALTIES LISTED

First casualties of the next war were the hens of Joe Mikulich, and he wants to know what the government is going to do in the way of reparations. While limbering up for Armageddon, if and when it comes, the field artillery of the California National Guard planted an explosive shell in Joe's chicken coop near San Pablo. There was heavy loss of life among the feathered noncombatants, and the survivors, suffering from shell shock, have not laid an egg since.

Sports World Ramblings

Greeks look ahead in sports—Emmanuel Othites, energetic athletic figure, informs all and sundry that the St. George Greek Orthodox Athletic Association is branching out, looking into the future. Within a few years, the Spartans expect to be one of the most powerful athletic bodies in New Castle's sports halo. Organized a comparatively short time ago, the Greek lads have already carved a prominent position near the center of the circle. With a bit more impetus, it's easy to see that the locals' future is rosy.

The Greeks' first venture was a basketball team. As a member of the Church League, the Spartans are popular and boast of a wide following. The team is gaining such rapid recognition that, only a few days ago, Othites received a letter informing him that the team has been invited to participate in a national Greek tournament billed for Chicago, next month. The event is being sponsored by the Aheans. The local club, one of the few selected, is likely to accept.

Plans are already past the preliminary stages for the erection of a modern gymnasium. When completed, the athletic plant will serve as the training camp for younger Greek lads. Future Greek stars will blossom from this younger association to be known as the St. George Junior Greek Athletic Association. With such men as Speer Marousis, Peter Brown, Peter Karidis and several others offering their help, the Spartans can't miss achieving what they have set out to do. If some of the other clubs and organizations would follow suit, New Castle would be one of the sportingest small towns in the country.

Fuzer, Dellick and Vanasky featured for the winners. Swanson and Johnson were Bessemer's best bets. In the prelude, the Youngstown East Reserves dumped the Bessemer Reserves, 37-19.

Northwestern Grid Coach Just Laughs

(International News Service)

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 29.—Every one concerned was inclined to treat as a huge joke today a report that Bill De Correvont, star sophomore halfback, had threatened to quit Northwestern next fall unless the school got a new football coach.

"It's the silliest story I ever heard," said De Correvont. "The whole thing's ridiculous."

Coach Lynn Waldorf also treated the rumor lightly. He said: "I haven't heard about it. Someone's made a mistake. I've heard of no ultimatum, no trouble—and no good thing in the third race."

RANCHO, SANTA FE, Cal., Jan. 29.—Ed. Oliver of Hornell, N. Y., was the man of the hour hereabouts today for winning individual honors in the Bing Crosby $3,000 amateur golf tournament with a 36-hole score of 68-67-135.

Second in the individual scoring was Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N. J., with 138. Tied for third with 139 points each were Harold McSpaden, Winchester, Mass., and Ben Hogan, White Plains, N. Y.

Mt. Jackson Invades New Wilmington In One Of Feature Clashes

Section 20 flippers move a notch closer to the finish tape Tuesday evening.

Inspired by their victory over East Brook, Friday evening, Mt. Jackson's cage force will try to do something no other team has been able to do—defeat New Wilmington, district pace setter. The game, billed for the college town gymnasium, is anticipated to be filled with action. The "Jacks" clicked on all five in sidetracking the Brookers.

In another feature clash, Union Township invades Shenango. These arch rivals are expected to put up one of those sizzlers. Bessemer is slated to swish nets with Wampum, at Wampum. East Brook is idle.

Greenberg Accepts Berth In Outfield For Coming Season

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Jan. 29.—Add a sense of duty to a desire to cooperate by being a "team player" and you'll have the reasons listed Saturday by Hank Greenberg, Detroit Tigers' slugging first baseman, for his accepting both an outfield assignment for the coming season and a 1940 contract without any visible bickering.

Greenberg's acquiescence to the management suggestion he shift to the outfield settled a couple of knotty problems. Immediately after the announcement by Hank, General Manager Jack Zeller reported that Rudy York, a natural first baseman who was shifted to catcher because of Greenberg's excellence, will hand down the keystone sack. With Hank in left field, Barney McCosky, a one-year veteran, in center field and Bruce Campbell, recently purchased from the Cleveland Indians in right field, the Tiger outfield will rate high in power and defense.

The question: Shall we encourage business to expand and distribute $1,000,000 in new wages, or tax it a million to feed the jobless?

Hostak And Zale To Fight Tonight

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—The Chicago debut of Al Hostak of Seattle, mid-cleavage champion everywhere but in New York and California, was expected to draw about 10,000 into the Chicago stadium tonight for a 10-round non-title bout between Hostak and Tony Zale of Gary, Ind.

Although Zale has a record of seven straight victories and is rated as a hard hitter with both hands, the champion was a heavy pre-fight favorite at odds of 6 to 1.

By agreement, should Zale defeat Hostak tonight, he will be given a return fight in Seattle, with the title at stake.

Why worry about Europe? If you have no voice in deciding how the neighbors live, why feel responsible for the results?

Church League Games Tonight

The feature game in the New Castle Church league tonight will send the Greek Orthodox team against the Third U. P. in the final game on the bill. The first game at 8 o'clock will find the First Presbyterians battling the Mahoning Methodist team.

The second game will have the First Christians meeting the First Baptist. The Greeks known as the "Fighting Spartans" and the Third battled it out for the Class A championship of the first half with the East Siders battling successfully, and taking the title. The Greeks hope to get their revenge tonight.

Cardinals Sign Young Catcher

Another Brother Act For Cardinals Looming, Pitcher, And Catcher

COOPER BROTHERS ARE CARDINAL HANDS

(International News Service)

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Jan. 29.—The St. Louis Cardinals no longer have their famous Dizzy and Daffy Dean brothers to enlarge their win column, but in two years time at the most—in the firm opinion today of Mort Cooper—they'll have another brother combination just as valuable as the Deans.

Cooper, prize Cardinal rookie pitcher of last year, has a young brother, Walker, who performs behind the plate in such a creditable manner that he's been sent from Houston into double A circles this year to get behind the plate for Columbus of the American Association.

"It may be a couple of years before he's up here, but I know Walker's a sure shot," Mort Cooper vowed. "He's big and fast and has a good throwing arm, and can hit."

The records seem to bear out Mort's enthusiasm. The younger Cooper is hefty and stands well over six feet. He hit in the 300's for Houston last year.

"I believe I can really toss that apple" with Walker behind the plate," the pitching half of the Cooper battery declared. "I have complete confidence in him back there. In Houston the kid caught all my games the latter part of 1939, and we really went to town. That was the year he and I hung up a Texas league record of 34 straight scoreless innings. We also worked three straight shutouts."

With Don Padgett, Cardinal star, proving himself adept in the outfield as well as behind the plate, experts concede Walker Cooper stands an excellent chance of breaking into the 1941 lineup of the Cardinals parent club of Columbus.

And, more declassified: "I think we can do all right."

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Jan. 29.—Geneva Clington, 19, plucky stenographer at the Sherwood Brothers pottery, is being held today as a heroine. Saturday afternoon the young woman foiled two armed stick-up men when they entered the office in the search of a $700 payroll.

Miss Clington told the holdup men that the payroll already was distributed, although it was in a desk drawer. The robbers held up seven occupants of the office and after taking their money, escaped in a car bearing Ohio license plates. Police are making a thorough search throughout the tri-state area.

Recovery From Early Irregular Decline Is Noted During Morning Trading

By LESLIE GOULD

International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The stock market continued in the doldrums today, although recovering from an early irregular decline. Price changes were meaningless in most cases and trading was at a standstill.

Westinghouse Electric was off 2 points today before meeting support. U. S. Gypsum in the building division and Allied in the chemicals each gave up half as much.

Steels and aviation were firm from the opening. Lockheed Aircraft continued an active feature on a climb of almost a point. Douglas, United Aircraft, U. S. Steel and Bethlehem advanced fractions.

Chrysler and General Motors moved a shade higher after early hesitancy, as did most of the rails. Coppers and utilities were barely changed, while rubbers lost a little ground. Packing shares extended their active advance of Saturday.

Nazi Raiders Over Shetland Islands

No Bombs Appear To Have Been Dropped On Islands However

(International News Service)

The state of the European war at noon (E. S. T.) today, January 29, was:

Germany resumed aerial activity over Northeastern England and the Shetland Islands today in a series of flights which forced residents into air raid shelters and sent Royal Air Force planes speeding to their defense.

Several "violent explosions" were reported in one of the four localities in Northeastern England. But no bombs appear to have been dropped in the Shetland Islands, where an air raid alarm of 40 minutes was sounded.

The first Nazi sky raiders appeared shortly after 9 a. m. over the crowded industrial districts of the northeast. Alarms were sounded immediately. By 11 o'clock, the last raid had been driven off and the "all clear" was sounded.

German mines took another victim at sea, the 298-ton Dutch steamer Nora, sinking off the southeast coast of England. All of the crew were believed saved.

Countess Barbara Plans For Divorce

May Then Wed Robert Sweeney, Handsome American Amateur Golfer, Is Report

(International News Service)

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 29.—Countess Barbara Hutton Haugwitz-Revelow expects soon to obtain a Florida divorce from her Danish nobleman husband from whom she is already legally separated, it was learned today.

Presumably, Babs desires to make certain that there will be no question concerning the legality of her London separation decree which under Danish law becomes a divorce decree if within 18 months neither party files an objection.

The decree becomes final either tomorrow or February 9, depending upon whether Danish authorities will date the 18 months period from the time the separation was signed by Babs and Count Kurt Haugwitz-Revelow in London, July 29, 1938, or from August 9, 1938, the date it was ratified by a Copenhagen court.

Robert Sweeney, handsome amateur golfer who accompanied Countess Babs and her son, Lance, to the United States last year, is rumored to be her choice for a third husband.

POSTMASTER FOR 40 YEARS WILL RETIRE FEB. 1

(International News Service)

PHILIPSBURG, Pa., Jan. 29.—Postmaster at nearby Allport for the past four decades, 76-year-old R. S. Leng plans to retire on Feb. 1 because he is a "little tired."

And the first thing on his schedule, after that, he said, is a "good long loaf."

Leng was appointed to his post on Feb. 3, 1900, when McKinley was president. He served through six administrations and last Thursday he wrote his 40,001st money order.

Married Life Is Marvelous Declares Mrs. Geo. Lowther, Modern Juliet Of Romance

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN

International News Service Staff Correspondent

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 29.—

Married life is "just marvelous—better than I expected," according to Mrs. George Lowther, the former Eileen Herrick, New York society deb, whose "Romeo and Juliet" romance made the front pages in a big way a few weeks ago.

She and her husband, George Lowther, 30, Yale '31, a young insurance broker, are honeymooning in Miami Beach. They were married in New Hampshire on Jan. 5 after a spectacular elopement. Eileen's parents didn't want her to marry George and kept her hidden from him for weeks. But love triumphed and "Romeo" finally married his "Juliet."

Saturday the newly-weds sat in bathing suits sunning themselves in beach chairs on the sands of Biscayne Bay. They seemed very happy. He called her "dear" and she called him "sweetie."

Senate Committee Would Delay Economic Pressure Against Japanese Nation

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A majority of the powerful senate foreign relations committee today appeared to favor delay in legislation applying economic pressure against Japan.

Democrats joined Republicans in asserting that "we ought to have a thorough survey of America's international relations with the Japanese before we take any drastic step that will shut off American exports to Japan."

From the viewpoint of foreign policy leaders in the senate slow going was advised in the ticklish situation resulting from the U. S. abrogation of the 1911 treaty of amity and commerce with Japan which expired Friday night on the orders of Secretary of State Hull.

This sentiment was evidenced as the foreign relations committee made preparations to consider both the Japanese legislation and the pending measure for a loan to Finland. Administration leaders in the senate demanded action on the Finnish loan legislation before taking up any other foreign policy questions.

The foreign relations committee meets Wednesday and senate Democrats...

CONSTIPATED? Don't Let Gas, Nerve Pressure Keep You Miserable

When constipated two things may happen. FIRST: Accumulated wastes swell up the bowels and press on nerves in the digestive tract. This nerve pressure often causes headaches, a dull, lary feeling, loss of appetite, and dizziness. SECOND: Partly digested food starts to decay forming GAS, bringing on sour stomach, acid indigestion, and heartburn, bloating, you up and you sometimes gasp for breath. Then you can't eat. You can't sleep. Your stomach is sour. You feel tired, out, grouchy, and miserable. FISH-ANDED Adolka containing three laxatives and five carminatives gives you DOUBLED ACTION. It relieves that awful GAS almost at once and usually clears the bowels in less than two hours. No waiting for overnight relief.

Local Planning Programs For Many Municipalities

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—Sixty-seven municipalities, 24 boroughs, three counties and five first class townships in Pennsylvania have espoused local planning programs, according to a survey made by the state planning board.

Merging of the planning board into the state department of commerce was seen as strengthening the relationship between state-wide problems of industry and the board's broad program.

"That the need for public planning, especially from an industrial standpoint, goes far beyond the mere development of plans for elaborate thoroughfares, parks and public buildings, was pointed out in a recent report by Russell Vanneest Black, prominent planner and consultant to the state planning board," read a board statement.

"All the necessary state enabling legislation for the immediate creation of local planning bodies is on the Pennsylvania statute books; county, city, borough, first class township, and regional planning acts; county, city, borough, first and second class township zoning acts.

"It only remains for the individual community or group of communities to select the more appropriate type of planning commission or municipal or regional. Every possible assistance is offered by the state planning board in making this selection."

Coach Line Drivers Will Be Honored

Three From New Castle To Get Recognition For Safety At Akron Banquet

Contribution of Penn-Ohio Coach Lines drivers to highway safety in 1939 in the tri-state area served by their busses will be celebrated at their annual banquet Tuesday evening in Akron.

Accident prevention results of the drivers' efforts are measured by the fact that throughout the year they drove busses over main highways of northeastern Ohio, western Pennsylvania and northern West Virginia an average of 156,123 miles for every dented fender or other type of accident of a chargeable nature that occurred.

The banquet will be given in honor of the men who made accident-free records either in the first half or the second half of the year. Seventy-six out of a possible 79 drivers in the service six months or longer, made such records. Of the 69 drivers in Penn-Ohio service throughout the year, 59, or 85.5 per cent, had clear records for the entire 12-month period.

All operators with six-month clear records will be guests of the company at the banquet. Meeting with them will be their wives and company officials to congratulate them on their safety accomplishment.

Among the operators thus to be honored are J. J. Romig, R. L. Logan and H. M. Vessella of New Castle.

Throughout the 18 years of Penn-Ohio Coach Lines operation, from the start of the service over a 15-mile route between Warren and Youngstown through its growth to a 600-mile system now serving throughout northern and eastern Ohio, western Pennsylvania and northern West Virginia, highway safety has been a paramount consideration of men and management. The result has been that in 1939 the busses operated a total of 3,278,607 miles and carried 3,156,411 passengers with only 21 accidents charged against the operators.

Officer's Slayer Is Electrocuted

Pittsburgh Man Pays Death Penalty For Shooting Officer In Holdup

(International News Service)
ROCKVIEW STATE PENITENTIARY, BELLEFONTE, Pa., Jan. 29.—Clutching a worn Bible that he had read almost continually during his brief stay in the death row here, Benjamin (Duke) Ginyard, 28-year-old slayer of a Pittsburgh policeman, went to his death in the state's electric chair early today.

The Pittsburgh negro, who recently wrote a letter saying "I am sorry for my evil deed", mumbled words of prayer as he was being strapped in the chair by prison guards. After handing his Bible to guards, he fervently repeated the words "Jesus save me" nearly a dozen times while final preparations were being made to expiate his debt to society.

As he sat on the large oaken chair with the death mask tightened over his face, he repeated his last words: "Help them God, for they know not what they do." The 2,000 volts sent from the nearby instrument panel by Pennsylvania's new executioner, Frank L. Wilson, of Pittsburgh, caught one of the prayers in his throat.

The thin slayer from the Brush-section of Pittsburgh died for fatally shooting Edward Conway during an attempted holdup of a grocery store in East Liberty. John Conway of Pittsburgh, brother of the victim, who answered the call for help when Ginyard and his companion, Willie Walker, tried to stick up the store, were among the 12 witnesses who saw the execution.

ATTEND CLINIC ON HOME SERVICE

Miss Margaret P. Bodenstein accompanied by Miss Thyra J. Fulton, of the local Red Cross visited the Cleveland Chapter on Thursday and Friday of last week for the purpose of attending a clinic on Home Service policies held in the Cleveland Chapter's department under the supervision of Miss Cecile McKay. Attending the meeting was the Field Director of the Veterans Facility in Aspinwall, Rexford Shaffer. Mr. Shaffer represents the Red Cross in both the Cleveland Facility and the Pittsburgh Facility and he brought out in his discussion the great need of all veterans to definitely establish their rating so that their families may be protected upon their death.

Miss Bodenstein has been urging all veterans to contact the Chapter office and go over the problem of establishing a claim so that there may be no unfortunate circumstances arising at the time of their death.
